Cloud Observers Grace

Words Peter Squibb 2012

John Bacchus Dykes (Melita-1861)

We thank you Lord for this our fare And all old sailors in your care For sun and rain and stars at night And Cloud Ob - ser - vers in thy sight Oh hear us when we pray to thee For those who've served on land and sea.

Cloud Observers Grace

This was sung BEAUTIFULLY by Gill, the acoustics took many of us by surprise, they were superb.

The meal is well and truly under way, conversation was virtually non stop.

Arthur about to propose 'THE TOAST' and introduce the Guest Speaker..

*Mrs Susan Dewey O.B.E.
Guest Speaker*

Graciously accepting a bouquet from Colin who presented them on behalf of Cloud Observers.

Peter also had a little surprise, Gill presented him with a framed copy of the Grace.

It's now time for the raffle.

Michael Johnson gets first go.

Jean obviously looking for something!

Think Ashley came out as the top winner, he won three prizes.

Maureen Bloomer seems to be having difficulty choosing.

Pauline settled on the plate.

Even Sue Dewey got a chance!

...and the lucky number is...
