

WOMEN'S ROYAL NAVAL SERVICE 1960s

Two of two

The following images come from the promotional video:

'Women's Royal Naval Service 1960s'

Control Tower where communications Wrens
keep constant radio contact with all aircraft operating in the area!

Air Mechanics guide in the aircraft!

Motor Transport Driver!

Off duty and paying a visit to Nelson's Ship
HMS Victory!

Marine Wrens...

...who are off duty!

In 1960 the Wrens celebrated their 21st birthday!

They enter a float in the Lord Mayor's show to celebrate!

To their Reunion in the Festival Hall came the Queen Mother and Princess Marina of Kent their Chief Commandant!

Top: Their then Director of Wrens 'Dame' Elizabeth Hoyer-Millar!

Below: Royal Naval College, Greenwich with Wren Cadets!

Travel to foreign parts!

Included places like Malta, Gibraltar, and a few postings at NATO headquarters!

A boat trip round the harbour!

'Manuella' the mascot of the island's naval supply with some Wrens!

Plenty of opportunity for sailing!

Wrens plotting a pilotless plane's progress - naval pilot sitting with them flies it by radio!

Teaching air-crew safety equipment drill!

OBSERVE EVERYTHING JUDGE NOTHING

Presentation  the2xislesteam

www.cloudobservers.co.uk