

WOMEN'S ROYAL NAVAL SERVICE 1980s

Four of four

Images come from the promotional video:

WOMEN'S ROYAL NAVAL SERVICE 1980s

There is the social life...

...the sports facilities...

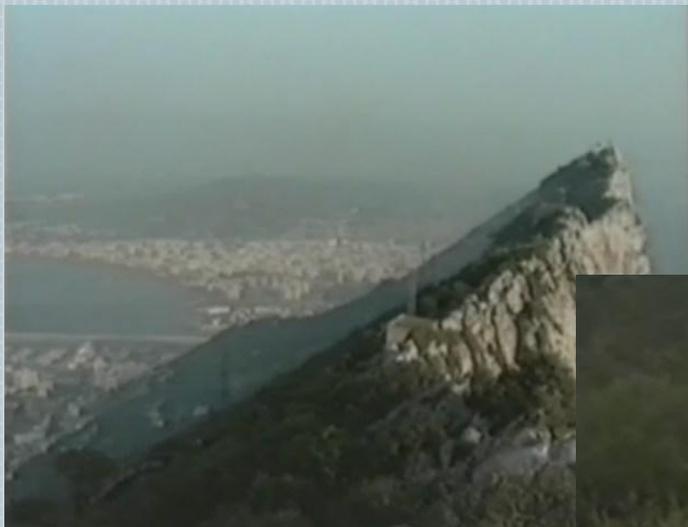

...meeting 'new' friends' when you move to a new base!

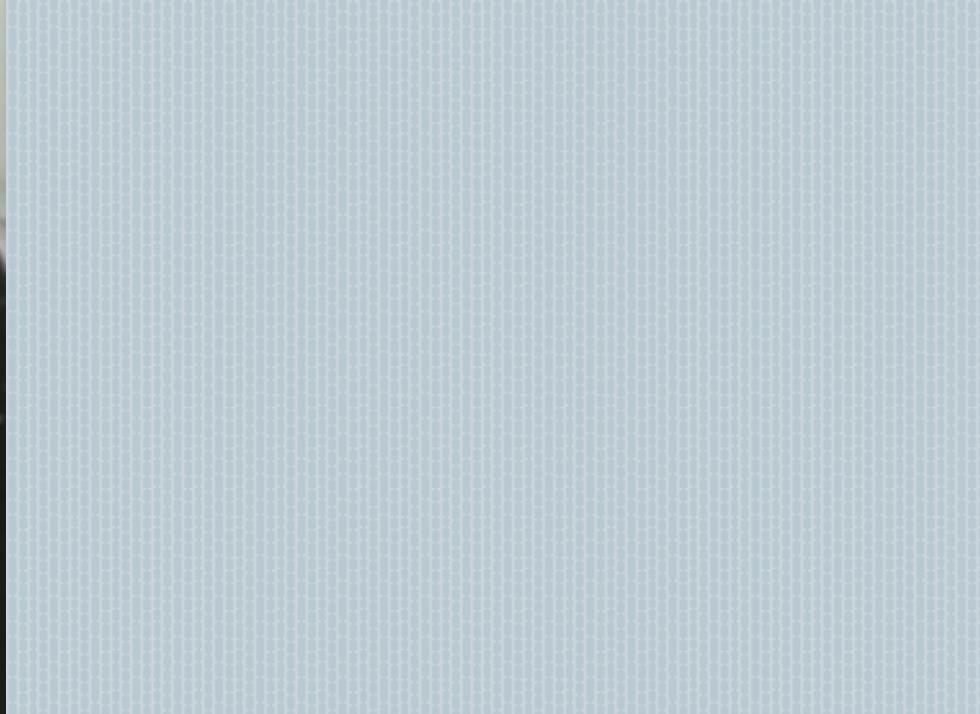

There's travel, Gibraltar, Hong Kong, Brussels, The Falklands or possibly Naples!

Explore the sites!

Meet the natives!

A gentle stroll...

...round a local market...

...finish the day by having a coffee...

...all in all...

...not a bad life!

Different ranks right up to Chief Wren and Warrant Officer Wren, depending on opportunities and individuals.

There are also officers, some join directly, some as cadet entry, the latter being considered as officers after a year or fifteen months. Ratings can also become officers if they show potential.

Some Wrens have to work unsocial hours...

...communication centres and telephone exchanges operate twenty four hours a day!

Left: Emergency - S.A.R.

Below: Operations Room...
...S.A.R. Alerted!

Position of the incident is noted!

Message is relayed.

S.A.R. are scrambled!

These 'sideshows' gave a brief...

...insight

to

'LIFE IN THE WRENS.'

OBSERVE EVERYTHING JUDGE NOTHING

Presentation  the2xislesteam

www.cloudobservers.co.uk