

Motorway Quiz

How well do you know the motorways and major routes of England?

No	Question	Answer
1	The first long distance motorway in England was the M1. In what year did its first section open? 1959 1960 1955 1963
2	The cities of London and Manchester are the only cities in England with one motorway encircling them completely (the M25 and M60 respectively). Birmingham also has an orbital motorway network, but using three motorways: the M6, M42 and what other motorway? M40 M5 M6 Toll A38 [M]
3	Three motorways cross the River Thames- going upstream: the M3, the M25 and which other motorway? M1 M40 M4 A404 [M]
4	The county of Lincolnshire is the second largest in England, covering 2,700 square miles. However it contains only one motorway. Which motorway is that? M18 M1 M62 M180
5	Most counties in England have at least one motorway. Some However have none. One of these counties has no motorway within it, which one? Herefordshire Dorset Shropshire Huntingdonshire
6	The motorway numbering system allows for many two digits motorways beginning with 5. But which of these motorways is the fake? M57 M59 M58 M56
7	The M11 connects London with which university town? Cambridge Reading Oxford Southampton
8	In the film 'Thunderbird 6' (1968), which motorway doubles for the fictional M104? M20 M40 M10 M80
9	Of England's single-digit motorway's, which is the shortest? M4 M3 M2 M5
10	The M1 runs from Greater London to West Yorkshire, which other eight counties does it pass through?

Source – Various Internet Sites